AGE

In accordance with Section 124.41 of the Ohio Revised Code (ORC) no person shall be eligible to receive an original appointment as a police officer, unless the person has reached the age of twenty-one (21) and has not reached the age of thirty-five (35). Applicants who are, or will be, over the age of thirty-five (35) by the exam date, will be asked to provide proof of previous appointment as a Peace Officer for a jurisdiction within the State of Ohio.

EDUCATION

No application for entry level police Civil Service testing will be accepted unless the candidate can offer proof that, at the time of application, he or she does possess an Associate's Degree or completion of 96 quarter hours or 64 semester hours towards a Bachelor's Degree from an accredited college or university; OR education may be substituted with five (5) years of continuous active full-time experience as a law enforcement officer with a Federal, State, County or Municipal Agency or Department, and at time of appointment, he/she is currently certified for Peace Officer Employment as per Ohio R.C. 109.75 and 109.77.

QUALIFICATIONS

Candidates for appointment to police patrolman classification must qualify within appointing range on the Civil Service Eligibility List and may be involved in the following activities of the selection process: background investigation, oral interview, physical and psychological examinations, physical agility testing and drug screening. New employees must serve a one (1) year probationary period that starts upon the successful completion of the Field Training Officer Program and must reside within the County of Wood, State of Ohio or an adjacent county by the end of said probation.

ELIGIBILITY LIST

The eligibility list will be created from applicants who successfully pass the examination and have met all the requirements of the application process. The Eligibility List can be found on the website for the City of Northwood.

The term of the eligibility list shall be fixed by the Commission at not less than one (1) nor more than two (2) years. When the eligibility list is reduced to ten (10) names or less, a new list may be prepared. Any list that has been in effect for more than one (1) year may, at the discretion of the Commission, be terminated at any time in the public interest.

VETERANS CREDIT

All applicants for original appointment who are veterans of military service, as described in R.C. 124.23, may file with the Commission a certificate of satisfactory military service or honorable discharge, whereupon he or she shall receive additional credit of five (5) points of his or her total grade given in the regular examination, provided that he or she has received a passing grade without regard to this or any other credit.

Such requests for veterans' credit must be submitted to the Commission along with the application for examination and must, at that time, be accompanied by proof of satisfactory military service as described above. Requests for veterans' credit made after the final date for test application will not be honored.

TIE SCORES:

In the event that applicants receive the same score in the examination, priority in the time of filing the application with the Commission shall determine the order in which their names shall be placed on the eligibility list; provided that applicants eligible for veterans preference under R.C. 124.23 shall receive priority in rank on the eligibility list over non-veterans on the list with a rating equal to that of the veterans. Ties among veterans shall be decided by priority of the filing of the application.

HIRING PROCESS

Successful applicants will need to successfully pass each phase in the sequences listed below to continue in the hiring process:

1. Submission of Application Packet and Qualifications to the National Testing Network and the Civil Service Commission for the City of Northwood,
2. Written General Aptitude Test,
3. When a vacancy occurs the Civil Service Commission will certify a list of 10 eligible candidates for the Police Chief to consider for filling the vacancy,

7. Police Chief's interview for those candidates with low negative points,
8. Conditional Offer of Employment,
9. Police Chief's Recommendation to Mayor and City Council,
10. Psychological Interview,
11. Physical Examination.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Under general supervision, the police patrolman serves citizens by maintaining law and order within the City's jurisdictional limits. The job of a police patrolman is a public servant position based on public trust, competency, and credibility. It is a critical requirement of this position that the employee has the desire and the ability to perform and behave (on-duty as well as off-duty) in a manner that does not cause damage or endanger the loss of such trust and credibility with the public, the court systems, co-workers, or other law enforcement agencies.

ILLUSTRATIVE DUTIES OF CLASSIFICATION

The police patrolman performs enforcement and safety related duties and functions. These include, but are not limited to: promoting and maintaining a positive public image; responding to calls for service of a non-enforcement nature; preventing, detecting, and investigating crime; enforcing violations of criminal statutes and city ordinances; and providing protective services.

The police patrolman must have the competency, self-initiative, and willingness to work a majority of assigned hours without direct supervision. The police patrolman must have the cognitive ability and desire to understand and interpret organizational rules, policies, and procedures in a manner that solves problems while at the same time promotes the image and mission of the Northwood Police Department.

The majority of law enforcement work is preventive and peacekeeping in nature, the police patrolman, when not responding to calls for service or on assigned duties, must be willing to self-initiate public relations, preventative, and enforcement work in those areas designated by management as priorities. This means, in many instances the employee must be able and willing to know what to do before having to be told what to do.

The police patrolman must be able to interact comfortably, lawfully, effectively, efficiently, and often quickly, with a wide variety of citizens and citizen's groups who have a wide variety of problems and need for enforcement, and safety related services.

Duties are frequently performed under a wide variety of known and unknown working conditions. Calls for service are often repetitive and sedentary in nature, punctuated with diversity. Sudden changes in service demands tax the extremes of the employee's physical and mental resources. For this reason, it is imperative that the employee possess and maintain a physically and mentally fit ready condition.

Personal and public safety consciousness, knowledge of and strict adherence to the observation of the civil liberties of all persons and citizens, the ability to promote and project a positive public image are critical requirements of the position of a police officer.

The Northwood Police Department provides police services every hour of the day and every day of the year. The employee must be able and willing to work any time of the day of the year as scheduled or needed.

DISQUALIFICATION OF APPLICANTS

The Commission may refuse to examine or, after an examination, refuse to certify as eligible, or after certification revoke that certification, of any person: who is found to lack any of the established preliminary requirements for the examination; who is physically so disabled as to be rendered unfit for the performance of the duties of the position which he or she seeks; who is addicted to the habitual use of intoxicating liquors or drugs to excess; who has been convicted of a felony, theft offense, and domestic violence including lesser included offenses, job-related non-traffic non-juvenile misdemeanors less than seven (7) years old, repeated O.V.I.'s (formally known as D.U.I.'s), O.V.I. within the last three (3) years; who has been issued a permanent civil protection order; who is uninsurable; who has been found guilty of infamous or notoriously disgraceful conduct; who has been dismissed from either branch of the civil service for delinquency or misconduct; or who has made false statements of any material fact, or practiced, or attempted to practice, any deception or fraud in his or her application or his or her examination, in establishing his or her eligibility, or securing his or her appointment. In relation to such inquiries, the Civil Service Commission may require such certificates of persons having knowledge of the applicant as the good of the civil service may require, subject to the requirements of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, if and to the extent those provisions are applicable. The Commission may also take into consideration that convictions (e.g., for misdemeanor) are more than seven (7) years old.

DISQUALIFICATIONS FROM ELIGIBILITY LIST AND WAIVER

The name of any person appearing on an eligible list who:

1. Fails to report or arrange within six (6) days from date of notification (Saturday, Sunday, City holiday excluded) for an interview with the appropriate appointing authority;
2. Fails to respond to a notice from the Commission;
3. Fails to report for work after accepting appointment;
4. Fails to pass a qualifying test prior to appointment;
5. Lacks any of the established requirements for the classification;
6. Has made false statements on his or her application;
7. Separates from employment with the City;
8. Has received a permanent appointment through certification from an eligibility list for another position of equal or more salary or rate;
9. Has become incapacitated subsequent to examination;
10. Has had errors discovered in the computation of the examination score of the eligible;
11. Has requested that his or her name be removed;
12. Fails to file with the Commission written notice of change of address, or, for whom notification is provided by postal authorities of their inability to locate him or her at last known address;
13. Becomes deceased;
14. For any of the reasons set forth in Chapter Four which would have caused his or her application to have been rejected:

Shall not thereafter be certified to any appointing authority as eligible for appointment. The potentially disqualified person shall be notified concerning the application of this section unless his or her whereabouts are unknown. The disqualified candidate's name may again be certified from the eligible list only where a thoroughly satisfactory explanation of the circumstances is made to the Commission. In the event of the refusal of an appointment by an eligible candidate, the appointing authority shall so notify the Commission.

In case an eligible person's name appears on more than one list, appointment to a position in one class shall be considered a waiver for appointment from eligible lists for classes in which the salary is equal or lower.

If, at any time after the creation of an eligible list, the Commission has reason to believe that any person whose name appears on any list is disqualified from appointment because of false statements made on his or her application, inability to perform the job duties, lack of a necessary license, lack of insurability, or for other comparable reasons; such person shall be notified and given an opportunity to be heard. If such person shall fail to appear for hearing, or upon being heard, fail to satisfy the Commission, his or her name shall be removed from such eligible list.

A request for waiver of certification and appointment or reinstatement, specifying reasons for such request, must be filed with the Commission within three (3) work days after the eligible individual has been notified of his or her certification to the appointing authority. A certification is not charged when the waiver is approved. Denial of such waiver shall cause removal from the eligible list.

Except that each eligible on a particular list, if a present City of Northwood employee, may receive, upon receipt of his written request, one (1) automatic waiver from certification and appointment from that eligibility list. Such request must be filed with the Commission within three (3) work days after the eligible employee has been notified of his certification to the appointing authority. In such instance where a sufficient number of eligibles are not available for certification for a particular position due to the use of the automatic waiver, those eligible utilizing automatic waivers will again be certified in the usual manner.

A person certified from an eligibility list three (3) times to the same appointing authority for the same or similar positions may be omitted from future certification to such appointing authority.

DUTY OF ELIGIBLES

Each person on an eligible list shall file with the Commission written notice of any change of address, and failure to do so may be considered sufficient reason for not certifying his or her name to the appointing authorities for future appointment.
